

CHISEL

THE BRYAN PALMER FOUNDATION

Caring Hearts in Surviving Early Loss

Center for Infant & Child Loss
University of MD Department of Pediatrics

The Bryan Palmer Foundation has partnered with The Center for Infant & Child Loss to reach out to parents, siblings, grandparents, and friends who are grieving the loss of a child. Our new initiative, Caring Hearts in Surviving Early Loss (CHISEL) will provide families with resources, comfort, and compassion after the loss of a child.

Introducing a new

SUPPORT GROUP

for those suffering the loss of a child

EVERY MONTH

3rd
Tuesday

Perry Hall Recreation Activity Room

Perry Hall Elementary School
9021 Belair Road
Baltimore, MD 21236

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Facilitator: TONYA M. LOGAN LICSW, LCSW-C
Founder & CEO of Kayla's Village, Tonya began her child welfare social work career in 1991. She has D.C. and MD licenses and has worked at six agencies.

Questions/Comments: bryanpalmerfoundation@gmail.com

Topics and Dates: www.bryanpalmerfoundation.org

